If any Mahajan on whom the Avsar/Bhaar prevails, desires to withdraw voluntarily to serve/act as the Avsar of the Devasthan, due to his inability to perform his sacred duty for any reasons or in case of his sudden demise, in such a circumstances the Managing Committee of the Devasthan take steps for replacement of the new Avsar/Bhaar of the respective family/community, by following the procedure laid down in the Article 21 of the accord. No claim of similar Avsar/Bhaar on any other Mahajan shall be entertained by the Managing Committee of the Devasthan.

Article 22: There is no change in original Article 22.

CHAPTER VII

Of Penalties

Article 23 as amended and approved is as under. There is no change in the original Article 24 and 25.

Article 23:

a) A member who, by acts of commission or omission or in any manner, causes damages or loss to the movable or immovable properties of the Devasthan or causes violence in the temple premises, besides being penalised as per law, his membership will be suspended by the Managing Committee for a period up to one year, after giving him chance to present his case and in case the Managing Committee is not satisfied initially with the improvement of his conduct, then such suspension period will be extended for an equal amount of period, unless and until the General Body decides in its meeting to revoke his suspension in such a situation by majority of 75% votes of members present, on the day of General Body Meeting.

b) A member who files false, frivolous vexatious, fictitious cases/petition/complaints/suits, against the Devasthan/Managing Committee deliberately, which results in financial losses to the Devasthan coffer, his membership/mahajanship shall be suspended for a period up to one year, after following Principle of Natural Justice and shall be liable to defray all the monetary loss incurred by the Devasthan for defending such cases. Further, General Body will have the right to extend the period of suspension or to withdraw the mahajanship rights of such member, who fails to compensate the Devasthan for loss.

c) A member who indulges in criminal acts such as assault or causes physical injury to Mahajan/member, devotees, worshippers or misbehaves with the members of the committee, shall be treated as serious fault on the association and will be expelled from the community of Mahajan's/association, after the accused Mahajan is heard before hand and giving opportunity to defend him.

d) A Mahajan who encroaches and usurps on the Devasthan properties/lands, and or claims Mundkarial, Tenancy rights or other rights over Devasthan properties, his such act will be construed as serious fault, harmful and detrimental to the interest of Devasthan and such a Mahajan automatically will lose or ceases to be a member of Devasthan, after the decision of the General Body and after giving personal hearing to the member concerned. Such a Mahajan or his male descendants will be permanently debarred from seeking or claiming membership of Devasthan, on the grounds that name of his ancestor was shown in the original/first Catalogue of Mahajans.

Sole Paragraph: Mahajanship is not an absolute right and enrolling authority i.e. Managing Committee/General Body will be a de-rolling authority or the General Body also will have powers to de-roll the membership of a Mahajan, depending upon the seriousness of the offence/faults. Decision of the General Body by majority regarding seriousness of fault, will be final.
